DOUGLAS PARK MISTREATED

RAIN AND MUD AGAIN BRING ABOUT UN-FAVORABLE RACING CONDITIONS.

David Craig Defeats Bronzewing-Several Close Finishes Mark the Racing-A Case of Ruling Off.

Louisville, Ky., May 26.—Another hard rain, which began late this morning, brought about more adverse conditions at Douglas Park and accounted for a multitude of withdrawals and a decreased attendance. The handicap at one mile and a sixteenth suffered most, four of the six originally carded being excused from starting. The race of two horses for a $750 purse marked the first instance of this kind since the lustallation of the nutuels on a Kentucky track. It also established a record in the calculating office for the winner's price was posted immediately after the finish, long before he had returned to the judges' stand for his rider to weigh in. David Craig and Bronzewing contested the race and the match excited seen interest. Bronzewing was favored by the big operators but the public in general pinned their aith to the Schorr representative and they were an enthuslastic band when Goose sent him into a good lead at once and led the filly a stern chase to the stretch turn, where she momentarily threatened to go to the front, but under a rousing finise. David Craig again drew away and managed to win by a length.

With Hanworth, Bradley's Choice and Bac out of the aille race a quartet was left to go and Leo Skolny under capable riding and running in his best form led Bonanza and the way and won handily.

best form led Bonanza all the way and won handily.

All the winners had to struggle hard to gain their laurels during the afternoon. The finishes between "ox and Langhorne in the opener and St. Charicote and Manloc in the fifth were especially close. Butwell figured in each case as the rider of the beaten norse. On Manloc he might have won had he stayed close to the inner rail and forced St. Charleote to go around him.

Jockey McCabe lost a race when he allowed intention to beat Mary H. for the purse in the sixth race by easing up too soon. The winner was advanced $405 over an entered price of $400 by Clarace Red, but was bought in.

Following the closing race, the stewards handed down the following signed ruling: "Under the pravisions rule 207 of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, T. J. Brown, owner, is warned off the tourse."

visions rule 207 of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, T. J. Brown, owner, is warned off the course,"

Rule 267 reads in part: "If a person corruptly gives or offers money, thare in a bet or other benefit to any person having official duties in relation to a race or to any jockey; or if any person having official duties in relation to a race or any jockey corruptly accept or offer to accept money, share in a bet or other benefits, then such person so offending shall be ruled off the course,"

The ruling came, it is said, as a result of an investigation by the stewards into the allegation that T. J. Brown had offered jockey Mechan, rider of Helen Barbee in yesterday's sixth race, $100 on a horse other than his moint in the race.

Brown, Mechan and other persons were interrogated by the stewards, but none of the restimony was disclosed by the officials. They intend to forward it to the Kentucky State Racing Commission. It is said that Brown denied the allegation and that Mechan held to the statement that Brown had made the offer to him.

Several of the Kentucky Handicap eligibles were given trials of a mile and a quarter at Churchill howns during the day. Borrow worked the distance in 2:11% and Roamer in 2:12%.

Following the closing race, the stowards handed visions rate 207 of the Kentucky Start Raching Commission, T. J. Brown, owner, is warned off the March 1997 of the Kentucky Start Raching Commission, T. J. Brown, owner, is warned off the March 1997 of the March 1997

Much interest is being manifested in the running of the Amateur Cup on Saturday, in which gentlemen riders will participate. A. L. Kramer has purchased Doublet from James Butler and the horse will be a starter in this event.

The report that Jingling, of the James Butler stable, had been killed by lightning several days ago was incorrect, it being the three-year-old Fennell lustead tead.

The weather was again cloudy today and a drizing rain fell in the early part of the afternoon, before the running of the last race the sun came. The track, which takes a great deal of moistwithout trouble, would be at its best with one

Mud Depletes Races and Only Two Start in the King Edward Hotel Gold Cup.

Toronto, Ont., May 26.—Tactics, running in the colors of F. J. Coleman and ridden by Rufus Shilling, accounted for the King Edward Hotel Gold Cup, the feature race of the day's offering at Woodbine this afternoon. At the finish Tactics led Boxer, the only other starter, by eight lengths. Withdraw-als were numerous, due to the changed track conditions. Heavy rains fell during the night and, although the tooting dried out through the morning, it was far from being fast.

The King Edward Hotel Gold Cup has been run anually since 1963 and its condensed history is as follows:

II. Giddings' Armine upset calculations when she beat Mandarin, the Seagram colt that scored over a good band in the Goodwood Plate on the second day of the meeting. Mandarin began slowly and was badly outpaced in the early running. At the finish he had closed up with a great barst of speed that landed him in second place in the last few strides, As a two-year-old fixture of spring racing the Coronation Stakes appeals strongly to Canadian breeders. At a meeting of the Irish Turf Club, the govern g body in Ireland, held in Dublin yesterday i as decided that there would be no interferen-cith racing in Ireland this year.

was decided that there would be no interference with racing in Ireland this year.

W. M. Carter has sold the three-year-old Ren Dale, by Ellisdale—Fairy Bird, to W. R. Coe. The youngster is of jumping stock and will be sent through the field with the idea of becoming a candidate for the Harbor Hill Cup, which cross-countrymen are bent on winning.

Since the war has put a damper on thoroughbred racing in England, Americans who have horses over there are cabling to their trainers for reports. It is more than probable that the stables of both Mr. Belmont and Mr. Whitney will come to this country and with them will be Jack Joyner, as there will be little for him to aftend to on the other side if all racing is called off.

Before the third race at Belmont Park Monday A. Ludlow Kramer purchased Doublet from James Butler for $3.000. The three-year-old had been entered for the race in Butler's colors together with Tudor King. The new colors were registered on the board too late for the general run of spectators to become acquainted with the change of ownership and the pair ran coupled as the Butler entry so far as any wagers were made.

Louic Martine will have three horses in racing this year in Weldters.

Louie Martine will have three horses in racing this year in Walters. Hypatia and Celery Jack. The latter is a maiden three-year-old that has never started. Ivabel, a half-sister to Old Rose-bud, which bore the Martine silks several years back and earned a reputation as a most consistent selling plater, is at present in the stud. As a yearling Old Rosebud was offered to Martine at a low figure by J. E. Madden, but he rejected the opportunity. the opportunity.

GALLAHER BROS, SUCCESSFUL BREEDERS.

Louisville, Ky., May 26.—For beginners in the thoroughbred breeding business Gallaher Bros. have gathered together this season a band of superior yearlings. They have eight youngsters, no less than seven of which are colts. The list of these youngsters is as follows:

stnut colt by Trap Rock-Velocity, by Henry

Chestnut colf by Trap Rock—Velocity, by Henry of Navarre.
Bay colf by Superman—Mamena, by Maximo.
Chestnut colf by Charles Edward—Bellisario, by Hippodrome.
Bay colf by Peter Quince—Ruby Nethersole, by Star Raby. colt by Ballot-Goody Good, by Lamp-

Chestnut colt by Ogden—Al Lone, by Albert. Brown colt by Duval—Trance, by Ben Brush. Brown filly by Duval—Centre Shot, by Sain.

Frown filly by Duval—Centre Shot, by Sain.

Of the collection this firm of turfmen consider the Velocity, Goody Good, Al Lone and Trance colts best, though they are well pleased with the others. Among the yearlings that this firm developed last fall, in addition to Little Sister was the recent eastern winner White Hackle, which they sold last winter to J. E. Madden. The colt is out of Mary Talbot, a mare the firm raced with Success.
